DETROIT COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL STUDENTS EARN MULTIPLE AWARDS IN 2009 REGIONAL SCHOLASTIC ART COMPETITION

BEVERLY HILLS, MI, January 26, 2009 –Detroit Country Day School is pleased to announce that four of its Upper School students were awarded the Gold Key Portfolio award (highest honor offered) in the 2009 Regional Scholastic Art Competition held January 17th at Country Day’s Upper School campus. Christine Alix (12th grade) for photography, Kelsey van Wormer (12th grade) for photography, Matt Dolan (12th grade) for ceramics and Anna Gustafson (12th grade) for jewelry.

In addition, a total of nine Upper and Middle School students earned Gold Key Awards, 27 earned Silver Key Awards and 38 earned Certificates.

All of the gold key winners will go on to New York for national judging. The student show for all the winning pieces will begin on February 15th and run through March 6th at the College for Creative Studies, William B. Ford Building in Detroit.

Detroit Country Day School is an independent, coeducational, college preparatory school offering a liberal arts pre-kindergarten through 12th grade education. Founded in 1914, the school provides a foundation for lifelong learning within an environment of educational excellence and cultural diversity. Detroit Country Day (www.dcds.edu) serves more than 1,500 students on its four Birmingham/Beverly Hills-area campuses.

###