one to one 2007 detroit hosted by the detroit country day school one to one 2007 canada hosted by appleby college

May 10, 2007

21st century skills 21st century students how 1:1 computing helped transform two of the world’s best schools Keynote by Patrick Gray, Special Assistant to the Technology Officer, Cisco Systems and former FBI Supervisory Special Agent for Global Counterintelligence Investigations.

two locations. two countries. one big event. 5.10.07 Please join us on Thursday, May 10, 2007, at Detroit Country Day School and Appleby College for a summit featuring best practices for empowering and enabling 21st century skills through the innovative use of technology.

registration free
www.lenovo.com/eventregistration select appropriate country